

HISTORICAL REVIEW 30

2012 - 2013

EXECUTIVE 2012 - 2013

President	Ken Strauss
Secretary	Carla Jones
Treasurer	Marilyn Harris
Membership	Martha Watson
Programme	Judith Goulin
Member-at-Large	Alison Torrie
Member-at-Large	Leona Woods
Newsletter Editor	Ken Straus
Past President	David Gregory

Programme highlights - See Newsletters at www.cdhs.ca for more information

Alderville Trip

On what was to be a very hot day in May 2012, a group of intrepid CDHS members boarded a bus to visit the Alderville First Nation Reserve.

A Spirit Walk

On Tuesday, September 25, Julie Oakes spoke about Pickering Museum Village's award-winning production.

Cobourg Peterborough Railway Bridge

George Parker presented fascinating details of the railway bridge across Rice Lake on Tuesday, October 23.

Trivia Night

For a change of pace, as well as a change of venue, CDHS had our first-ever trivia night on November 30 at 7:30pm at the Cobourg Yacht Club.

Ensuring a Future for Our Past: The Northumberland County Archives

Speaker Emily Cartlidge kicked off the new year. Emily was hired in 2012 as the Records Manager and Archivist for Northumberland County. Soon after CDHS's archives became part of the County's archives.

"Triumph of the Will"

Members gathered at Northumberland Theatre to view this film and discuss.

Plows, Cows and a Harvest of Farms

Gayle Hoskin from the well known farming family presented.

Annual General Meeting and John Jolie

After the AGM, the April meeting featured long-time member John Jolie who presented his findings about Major Lachland T. Burwash.

The Summer Colony

An evening with Rob Mikel at historic Villa St. Joseph, May 2013

Of Note: CDHS member Marion Hagen recently received a Queen's Diamond Jubilee Medal